PROVISIONS CONCERNING BENEFITS

Article 10

Totalisation of periods of coverage

If a person has completed periods of coverage under the legislation of both Contracting States, these periods, insofar as they do not overlap, if necessary, shall be added together for the purpose of acquiring entitlement to a benefit, as if they were periods of coverage in the relevant Contracting State.

2. The periods of coverage of a person completed in a third country, with which the concerned Contracting State has a Social Security Agreement of the same kind, shall be taken into account for the purpose of acquiring entitlement to a benefit under the respective legislation.
3. If the total duration of the periods of coverage to be taken into account for the determination of the benefit under the legislation of one Contracting State is less than 12 months and due to these periods of coverage entitlement to a benefit does not exist under the legislation referred in Article 2, no benefit will be provided under the legislation of this Contracting State.

Article 11

Calculation of benefits where totalisation is not required

Where entitlement to a benefit exists under the legislation of one Contracting State without the application of paragraph 1 of Article 10, the competent agency of that Contracting State shall determine the amount of the benefit exclusively on the basis of the periods of coverage to be taken into account under that legislation.

SECTION 1

BENEFITS UNDER THE LEGISLATION OF AUSTRIA

Article 12

Special provision relating to Austria

When a person who has completed periods of coverage under the legislation of both Contracting States, or the survivor of such a person, claims a benefit, the competent Austrian agency shall determine, in accordance with Austrian legislation, whether the claimant is entitled to a benefit by adding together the periods of coverage, as provided in Article 10, and taking into account the following provisions:

- (a) Where Austrian legislation makes the award of certain benefits conditional upon the completion of periods of coverage in an occupation covered by special schemes or in a specified occupation or employment, only periods of coverage under the legislation of India completed in the same occupation or the same employment shall be taken into account for the award of such benefits.

- (b) Where Austrian legislation provides that the period of payment of a pension shall prolong the reference period during which periods of coverage must be completed until the relevant date, periods during which a pension has been awarded under the legislation of India shall also prolong up to the aforesaid reference period.

Article 13

Calculation of the Austrian benefits

1. Where entitlement to a benefit exists under Austrian legislation only by totalising periods under paragraph 1 of Article 10, the competent Austrian agency shall determine the amount of the benefit in accordance with Regulation (EC) No. 883/2004, with periods of coverage in India, to be deemed periods of coverage in another Member State of the European Union.
2. As an exception from paragraph 1 of this Article, child raising periods shall be taken into account for the determination of the benefit only in accordance with the Austrian legislation.

SECTION 2

BENEFITS UNDER THE LEGISLATION OF INDIA

Article 14

Special provisions relating to India

1. Notwithstanding the provisions in this Agreement for the acquisition, retention or recovery of the right to old age, survivor's and disability benefits, the periods of coverage completed pursuant to the Austrian legislation concerning such benefits shall be totalised, when necessary and to the extent that they do not overlap, with the periods of coverage completed pursuant to the Indian legislation.
2. If the Indian legislation subordinates the granting of certain old-age, survivors' and disability benefits to the condition that the periods of coverage are to be completed in a given occupation, only periods of coverage completed or recognised as equivalent in the same occupation in Austria shall be totalised for admission to entitlement to these benefits.

3. If the Indian legislation subordinates the granting of certain benefits to the condition that the periods of coverage are to be completed in a given occupation and when these periods did not result in entitlement to the said benefits, the said periods shall be considered for the determination of the benefits provided for in the general scheme for employed persons.
4. If a person is entitled to an old age, survivor's or disability benefit under the Indian legislation without necessarily proceeding to totalisation, the competent Indian agency shall calculate the benefit entitlement directly on the basis of the periods of coverage completed in India and only under the Indian legislation.
5. If a person is entitled to an old age, survivor's or disability benefit by virtue of the Indian legislation, with his right being created solely by taking the totalisation of the periods of coverage into account, the following rules shall apply:
 - a) the competent Indian agency shall calculate the theoretical amount of the benefit due as if all the periods of coverage completed according to the two Contracting States' legislations were exclusively completed under the Indian legislation.
 - b) the competent Indian agency shall then calculate the amount due, on the basis of the amount specified under (a), in proportion to the duration of the periods of coverage under its legislation.

 - a) on ceasing to be an employee in an establishment, and
 - b) on leaving the territory of India or not being employed in an establishment.
